

In Memoriam

HARVEY J. HOROWITZ

1943-2018

The lawyers of Mintz & Gold LLP mourn the loss of our friend, colleague, and long-time mentor Harvey J. Horowitz, who died on December 22, 2018 at the age of 75. Harvey was one of the original associates of the former Squadron Ellenoff firm where he practiced law for over 25 years and served as the managing partner until 1996. From 1996 to 1998, he served as the General Counsel of a public company and thereafter joined Mintz & Gold where he served as Of Counsel to the firm for the last twenty years. Harvey provided true counsel, endless practical experience, and sage advice and wisdom to the firm and his clients. Whether serving as the President of South Fork Country Club, providing devotion to his family and his beloved dogs, or working at his golf game, Harvey always brought a wonderful combination of seriousness and professionalism while simultaneously finding an ability to find levity while providing the correct answer or solution.
